FIRST INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR-WORKSHOP OF ENGLISH AND READING TEACHERS ACROSS GRADE LEVELS

The Philippine Association of English Language, Linguistics, and Literature Teachers (PAELLLT) Inc., in cooperation with the Philippine Center for Teachers' Continuing Education (PCTCE) Inc., will hold its First International Seminar-Workshop of English and Reading Teachers Across Grade Levels with the theme Read, Learn, Teach and Assess: Developing 21st Century Skills and Competencies of Teachers for ASEAN 2015 Integration from April 6 to 10, 2015 at the Institute of Social Order (ISO), AVR Rooms 3 and 4, Ateneo de Manila University (AdMU), Loyola Heights, Katipunan Road, Quezon City.

The Seminar aims to:

1. equip teacher-participants across grade levels with fun and creative ways in teaching and assessing English as a Second Language (ESL) and reading;
2. train them to become competent readers and speakers of English;
3. make rubrics for authentic and performance-based assessment of learning;
and
4. produce instructional materials (IMs) for learners across grade levels and multiple intelligences.

The target participants are the school administrators, coordinators, English, Reading, and Literature teachers across grade levels, Education students, and other interested individuals.
