11TH WOMEN WITH DISABILITIES DAY

Pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 744 dated December 6, 2004 entitled Declaring the Last Monday of March of Every Year as Women with Disabilities Day, the National Council on Disability Affairs (NCDA), in partnership with the Philippine Commission on Women (PCW) will celebrate the 11th Women with Disabilities Day with the theme Juanang May Kapansanan, Kapasyahan Mo Ay Mahalaga Sa Bayan” on March 23, 2015.

The Celebration aims to promote and highlight the rights of women with disabilities to ensure equal access to health services, education, training and employment, and protection from sexual and other forms of abuse, among others.

In this regard, all concerned are encouraged to support the abovementioned event, by undertaking the following related activities:

1. Hanging of streamers in conspicuous places; and
2. Conducting activities which are fitting and appropriate to the settings of their respective offices, but not limited to the activities lined-up by the National Working Committee (NWC).
