The Press Convention aims to:

1. provide the campus writer-participants with an effective medium in the development and promotion of campus journalism in the region and orient them on their roles;
2. enhance their journalistic skills through talks and lectures to be conducted by the authorities in the field;
3. provide them an avenue to interact and associate with their fellow writers from other schools; and
4. promote to them responsible journalism.

All campus journalists who must be bonafide learners of their respective schools and members of the school paper editorial board from secondary and tertiary schools in the Bicol Region are invited to attend.
