18TH NATIONAL EDUCATORS COOPERATIVE SUMMIT AND ANNUAL GENERAL
ASSEMBLY OF THE PHILIPPINE FEDERATION OF TEACHERS
AND EMPLOYEES COOPERATIVE (PFTEC)

The Philippine Federation of Teachers and Employees Cooperative (PFTEC), in collaboration with the Cooperative Development Authority (CDA), will conduct its 18th National Educators Cooperative Summit and Annual General Assembly with the theme Sustainable Environment, Everyone's Concern in the Coop (SEECCO) from February 26 to 28, 2016 at the Baguio-Benguet Community Credit Cooperative, Cooperative Street, Assumption Road, Baguio City.

The Summit aims to:

1. bring together the cooperative officers and Department of Education (DepEd) officials and educators in promoting a common understanding of the fundamentals of co-operatives among co-op members, officers and management staff, officials of the DepEd; and
2. enable them to level up with the ICA Cooperative Blueprint – the 2020 Vision is for the co-operative form of business to become:
 - a. The acknowledged leader in economic, social and environmental sustainability;
 - b. The model preferred by people; and
 - c. The fastest growing form of enterprise.

The focus of this year's Summit is the focal strategic plan of the 2020 vision, Sustainability and Environmental. The objective is to develop the external identity Co-operative are Making a Crucial Contribution Towards the Shift to a Low Carbon Economy.

The target participants are the cooperative officers and members, designated DepEd Coop Coordinators, school principals, directors of services, schools division superintendents and regional directors.
