FIRST INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF EUROPEAN AND ASIAN RESEARCHERS
AND EDUCATORS ON LIFELONG LEARNING FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

The Philippine Normal University (PNU) and the Asia-Europe Meeting on Lifelong Learning Hub (ASEM LLL Hub), Danish School of Education, Aarhus University, Copenhagen, Denmark, in cooperation with the National Association of UNESCO Clubs in the Philippines (NAUCP), will hold their First International Conference of European and Asian Researchers and Educators on Lifelong Learning for Sustainable Development (I-CEARE 2017) with the theme Universities and Communities in Asia and Europe: Creating Meaning for Sustainable Development from May 12 to 14, 2017 in Boracay Island, Aklan, Philippines.

The Conference aims to allow educators and researchers to:

1. creatively present methods, strategies, practices, experiences, and models used on university-community partnership and communities of practice for development;
2. establish networks and functional partnerships between youth organizations, universities and colleges, government and non-government organizations, and various business and media groups to promote lifelong learning;
3. take an oath of commitment to attain the vision of education for sustainable development through service and volunteerism;
4. enjoy learning from the practices and voices from the ground through paper presentations, academic contests, cultural solidarity exchanges, and environmental exposure;
5. promote interest in educational research; and
6. publish selected papers in the PNU book project/journal.

The target participants are NAUCP members, faculty, educationists, graduate and undergraduate students of Higher Education Institutions (HEIs), Teacher Education Institutions (TEIs) in the Philippines and abroad.
