NATIONAL TRAINING OF STUDENT LEADERS OF THE SACEDA YOUTH LEAD

The Saceda Youth Lead (SYL) will conduct a series of National Training of Student Leaders from October 2018 to March 2019 in various locations.

The training has strong emphasis on Leadership Development, Conflict Resolution, Decision Making, and Balance. It aims to:

1. define leadership and leadership development;
2. enumerate the elements of team effectiveness;
3. identify whether a leader is born or made;
4. employ obstacle courses in the team building activities that target cognitive, affective, and physical/kinesthetic objectives;
5. meet local leaders and gain inspiration from them;
6. demonstrate leadership theories into practice in the series of programs and events at the training; and
7. strengthen personal and family values for the total development of the student leaders.

The target participants are teacher-advisers and master protocol officers of public and private institutions, student-leaders aged 10 years old and above, and learners who are not part of their pupil/student government but who wish to study and learn leadership.
