2019 SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE-ASIA PACIFIC
CONFERENCE ON EXERCISE AND SPORTS SCIENCE

The Philippine Sports Commission, in cooperation with the Philippine Southeast Asian Games Organizing Committee, Asian Council of Exercise and Sports Science, University of the Philippines College of Human Kinetics, and Asian Federation of Sports Medicine will conduct the 2019 Southeast Asian Games Scientific Conference-Asia Pacific Conference with the theme, Stronger and Healthier ASEAN Through Sports Science, from November 22 to 24, 2019 at the Quest Plus Hotel and Resort, Clark City, Pampanga.

The conference aims to

1. emphasize the importance of Sports Science for optimal performance,
2. serve as a venue for evidence-based practices using Sports Science to be presented to those who are in the field,
3. provide an opportunity for exchange of knowledge and expertise among Sports Science practitioners,
4. share the latest research made by Sports Science practitioners in the Southeast Asian region, and
5. foster collaboration and establish linkages among the different academic institutions and sports stakeholders.

Around 500 delegates representing national and international sports scientists and physical education teachers, sports managers, coaches, trainers, athletes and students from different colleges and universities are expected to comprise the audience.

Interested participants may register online through <https://www.2019seag-apcess.com/events/2019-seagames-apcess-scientific-conference>.
