INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE ON TECHNOLOGY, CULTURE AND SOCIETY OF THE BICOL STATE COLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCES AND TECHNOLOGY

The Bicol State College of Applied Sciences and Technology (BISCAST) will conduct the International Research Conference on Technology, Culture and Society (IRConTeCS) with the theme, Exploring Innovative Theories and Practices for Technological, Cultural, and Societal Advancement, from December 9 to 11, 2020.

The virtual conference aims to

1. provide a venue for intellectual discussion of research findings related to continuous advancement in technology, culture, and society;
2. strengthen the researchers' capacity to communicate relevant findings to the academic and industrial community; and
3. create a community of scholars who can collaborate with other participants to come up with future researchers.

Researchers from different national and international academic institutions and organizations, industries, and companies are invited to submit their original research articles for oral presentation in the conference identified fields.
