CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE ASEAN PRIZE 2022

In its fifth edition this year, the ASEAN Prize will once more recognize an outstanding individual and/or organization that rose to the challenges to empower lives and connect communities across the region amid the difficult journey towards pandemic recovery. ASEAN Secretary-General Dato Lim Jock Hoi will chair the Judging Committee to select the potential nominees together with the former ASEAN Secretaries-General. The recipient of the ASEAN Prize 2022 will receive a trophy and monetary prize of US$20,000.

To qualify as the country's candidate, the nominee must either be a Filipino citizen, or an organization created in the Philippines. The nominee must show their verifiable achievements in promoting intra ASEAN collaboration and the impact on ASEAN. The nominee must also share their plans for continuing their work after winning the prize. In addition, the submission must be supported by one character reference attesting to the nominee's suitability to receive the ASEAN Prize, as self-nominations and posthumous submissions will not be considered.

Interested parties must submit the endorsement letter/s, fully accomplished Nomination Form, along with the supporting documents to the International Cooperation Office (ICO) via email for consideration of the DepEd ASEAN Prize Screening Committee.

For more information and clarifications on the criteria and selection process of the Prize, interested parties may refer to the official website at <https://asean.org/asean-prize> or contact the International Cooperation Office through email at ico@deped.gov.ph.
