2022 PHILIPPINE TEXTILE CONGRESS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY-PHILIPPINE TEXTILE RESEARCH INSTITUTE

The Department of Science and Technology-Philippine Textile Research Institute (DOST-PTRI) will conduct the 2022 Philippine Textile Congress with the theme, Intertwining the Philippine Textile Innovation Ecosystem, on November 15, 2022 from 9:00 a.m. to 12 nn at the DOST-PTRI Gallery and through Facebook live.

The Congress aims to

- a. highlight the multidisciplinary nature of textiles as the nexus of the humanities and sciences through the presentation of academic research in textiles and the exhibition of contemporary Philippine fashion designs; and
- b. disseminate knowledge and share ideas for the development of innovations in the Philippine textile sector with a focus on the role of collaborations between different disciplines and between academe, industry, and government as a driver for progress.

The target participants are researchers, students, creatives, industry partners, and textile experts. Schools nationwide offering courses and programs related to tailoring and dressmaking are invited to attend this activity.
