MILO NATIONAL INTERSCHOOL SHORT COURSE SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIP 2025

With enthusiastic participation from the National Capital Region and Western Visayas in the 1st MILO Inter-School Short Course Swimming Championships, the Bert Lozada Swim School, in collaboration with Swim Philippines, is now set to bring the remaining legs in North Luzon, South Luzon, Central Visayas, and Mindanao.

Now in its latest season, the MILO Inter-School Championships continue to bring together thousands of student-athletes from public and private schools across the country. More than just a competition, this event serves as a dynamic platform for youth development, nurturing confidence and character in young swimmers both in and out of the pool.

The event is open to student-athletes aged five and above. Each leg will accommodate a total of 250 girls and 250 boys. Interested participants may refer to the following event information kit for the guidelines, order of events, entry forms, and meet rules:
