3RD COMMUNICATION RESEARCH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES DILIMAN-DEPARTMENT
OF COMMUNICATION RESEARCH

The Department of Communication Research of the University of the Philippines Diliman will host the 3rd Communication Research International Conference (CRIC) at the UP Diliman College of Mass Communication on November 17–18, 2023, with the theme, MediAgenda: the mediatization of communication in Asia.

The conference provides a venue to exchange notes on the textures of the mediatized spaces in a very diverse Asia. As the Asian region continues to play an important role in global affairs, the region also perpetually experiences all scales and extents of mediatization in its upheavals, breakthroughs, innovations, amusements, and celebrations. Thus, there is a resounding call to share research on the possibilities and probabilities of mediatization in the region.

For this international conference, the CRIC 2023 forms a partnership with the following Asian universities:

1. Nanyang Technological University, Singapore;
2. National Taiwan Normal University, Taiwan;
3. National Chengchi University, Taiwan;
4. Chulalongkorn University, Thailand;
5. Sunway University, Malaysia;
6. Universitas Atma Jaya Yogyakarta, Indonesia;
7. Universitas Multimedia Nusantara, Indonesia;
8. Sekolah Tinggi Ilmu Komunikasi Dan Sekretary Tarakanita, Indonesia; and
9. Universitas 17 Agustus 1945 (UNTAG) Surabaya, Indonesia.
